*For details on transaction conditions, please check the Atsugi Tourism
Association website before applying.

This document constitutes part of the transaction conditions explanation as stipulated in Article 12 of the Travel Agency Act and the contract document as stipulated in Article 12-5 of the same Act. This tour is a solicited planned tour organized and operated by Atsugi Tourism Association (hereinafter referred to as 'the Association'). The following is an excerpt; the travel contract between the customer and the Association is governed by this flyer, the separately provided transaction conditions explanation document, and the Association's travel business terms (solicited planned tour contract section).

1. Application and Travel Contract: In the case the number of application exceeds the capacity, we will draw lots. A travel contract is not set at the time of application. The contract is set only when a selected applicant transfers the full travel fee and the Association confirms receipt of the payment (a special provision based on Article 1, Paragraph 2 of the Terms and Conditions for Travel Contracts). For those not selected or those who fail to make the payment by the deadline, no travel contract is set, and no cancellation fees apply.
2. Changes to travel content/price: The Association may change the contract content with explanation when circumstances beyond its control arise, such as natural disasters, suspension of transport/accommodation services, or provision of transport services not according to the original plan.
3. Cancellation by customer: (1) Customers may cancel the contract at any time by paying the prescribed cancellation fee. (2) No cancellation fee applies when: (i) significant changes as exemplified in Section 9 are made; (ii) the price is increased; (iii) the Association fails to deliver the confirmed itinerary by the prescribed date; (iv) implementation according to the original itinerary becomes impossible due to reasons attributable to the Association.
4. Cancellation by the Association: The Association may cancel the contract before or after departure in cases such as: (i) travel fees not paid on the day; (ii) application conditions found to be non-compliant; (iii) customer unable to endure travel due to illness or absence of necessary caregiver; (iv) customer demands exceed reasonable scope or may disturb other customers and impede smooth group travel; (v) minimum number of participants not reached; (vi) extremely high likelihood that stated travel conditions will not be fulfilled.
5. Items not included in travel price: Beverage charges and associated taxes not specified in the itinerary, service charges, tips, cleaning fees and other personal expenses, excess baggage charges, medical expenses for injuries/illness, airport taxes/facility fees.
6. Association's liability: The Association will compensate damages caused to customers through its intentional or negligent acts. Compensation limit for luggage is 150,000 yen per person. The Association bears no liability for damages caused by force majeure, war, riots, suspension of travel services, government orders, or other causes beyond its control.
7. Compensation for damages during travel: The Association will pay prescribed compensation and hospital/outpatient visit consolation money for certain damages to life, body, or luggage caused by sudden external accidents during the tour.
8. Itinerary guarantee: (1) When significant changes listed in the contract are made, the Association will pay change compensation calculated by multiplying the prescribed rate based on the nature of the change. However, no payment is made if the compensation amount is less than 1,000 yen per customer.
9. Tour conductor: A tour conductor will not accompany the tour, however local guide will accompany for each group.
10. Translator: English translator will accompany only for group 3.
11. Handling of personal information: The Association will use customer information for communication purposes and within the scope necessary for the applied tour and various Association services. For details, please see the Association website.
12. Other: (1) Regardless of tour cancellation, bank transfer fees collected by financial institutions are borne by the customer. (2) These travel conditions (excerpt) are based on the date of each pamphlet's publication.
13. Certified Travel Service Manager: The Certified Travel Service Manager is the person responsible for transactions at the office handling your travel. If you have any unclear points about this contract, please ask the Association's Certified Travel Service Manager.
